His concerts are praised for appealing to audiences of all ages, containing a wide variety of musical styles. At age 18, Lance won 1st place honors in the Yamaha National Electone organ competition in California. The next year he was appointed the Head Staff Organist at Radio City Music Hall in New York, on the largest Wurlitzer ever built.

Lance has made many recordings, including being part of the famous "Theatre Organ Greats - A Salute to Radio City Music Hall" double LP. During his teenage years he began playing the organ at a local church on Sundays, and 3 nights a week at a local skating rink, and performed countless times for area organ clubs and societies.

From The President's Desk

On November 1, 2008 I was authorized by the Board of Directors to enter into a one year exclusive listing agreement with Friedman Real Estate Group for the purpose of dissolving all of the real property owned by the Society. The asking price at that time was $475,000. This month, I would like to take an opportunity to update the membership on this matter.

Over the last year, we have showed the properties to many different individuals who showed interest and could see the potential of the Senate Theater as a night club, church, bar or entertainment venue. However, they all had a common thread which was financing their projects.

On March 1, 2009 a decision was made to lower the asking price of the properties to $375,000 which brought in more of the same type of investors to the Senate for what is commonly referred to as a walk through of the building.

To this date, we currently have no offers on the table for the purchase of all the real property owned by the Society and we have lowered the asking price again to $275,000.

I would also like to remind everyone of the process that must take place should an offer be made on the properties. The by-laws state that the Board of Directors may not enter into any purchase or selling agreements regarding property unless the offer has been approved by the membership at large.

The Board of Directors is exploring their options with regard to everything that remains in the Senate such as office equipment, furniture and electronic equipment.

Pipes and Chests

In 2005, the Board of Directors decided to make the rebuilding of our Wurlitzer a priority and put true craftsman in the field of organ rebuilding on the task. “We were tired of all the dead notes and siphor’s in the middle of a performance and thought our membership and visiting organists deserved better” recalls President Denagte.. In addition, at the time, we were not meeting our obligations in the Artists contracts which speculate that we provide visiting organists an instrument that is in “concert ready” condition.

Local pipe organ technicians Scott Smith, Ken Holden and their crews have spent the last four years on the job at the Senate and reported to the Board of Directors in September that 100 percent of the relay has been rebuilt and 75 percent of the chests have been re-leathered. 80 year old leather has been replaced with the better quality leathers of today and the siphor’s of yesterday are long gone.

Board Room News

The Board of Directors meet for their regularly scheduled meeting on Tuesday October 27th at the Senate.

The Meeting was called to order by President Dengate at 7:02pm. President Dengate announced that the Society had received a financial gift from the Dave Brewer Estate in the amount of $150,000 dollars. President Dengate suggested that this additional funding be set aside to cover building expenses in 2010 while the remaining funds be saved for future use. He also indicated some unforeseen expenses correcting computer problems with the alarm system and the replacement of one of the back-up batteries in the amount of $300.00.

During last month, the boiler for the Theater stopped working and a water valve had to be replaced. Repair costs to get it operational again were about $500.00 according to treasurer Bob Weil.

Additional security measures were requested for the building as we move into 2010. One of them was to get quotes from the alarm company to add a external speaker on the building for when the alarm is tripped. Another change that is being considered is to eliminate the telephone lines currently used by the alarm company and replace them with a radio frequency (RF) type system. Estimates will be obtained in time for the November 24th meeting.

Financially Speaking

At the October Board of Directors meeting, Treasurer Robert Weil distributed a Profit and Loss statement that reflected the following income and expenses for October.

Scott Smith's program generated a total income of $800.95, of which $604.00 was ticket sales alone. The remaining income came from the concession counter, record counter, 50/50 raffle and donation basket.

During the month, administration expenses were $414.07.

Included in this amount was about $190.00 for printing and mailing of this newsletter. Starting in January, members that have e-mail will only receive notification by e-mail with direction on where to find the newsletter on our web site. This will reduce the number of copies made and mailed to the membership.

Maintenance costs for the month which include the boiler repairs previously mentioned and repairs to the Wurlitzer totaled $2,498.06.

Utility costs at the time the report was generated were $418.35 which were telephone, internet service and water/sewer.

Bob had indicated to the Board that all of the utilities were on the services budget plan much like you can do with your own utilities at home. Every year, each company will audit our use and re-calculate a monthly payment depending on use. This has helped us with budgeting for the Society.

Annual dues notices will be going out in the mail the first week of December. Due to a reduced concert schedule in 2010, please remember that your dues have been reduced. Playing members will pay $105.00 and Associate Members will pay $80.00.

A long discussion took place regarding what to do with the instrument in 2010. The Organ Trustee Committee submitted a proposal that we keep the instrument "playable" for as long as possible. With the additional funding that we received, this is now possible and it is likely that the instrument will be made available for the playing membership for the first six months of 2010 unless the building is sold sooner. No action was taken on the three bidders to remove the instrument from the Senate at this time.

Steven Ball gave the Board an update on the possibility of the instrument becoming part of the Sterns Musical Collection on the campus of the University of Michigan and advised the Board that a written proposal may be ready for Board Action at the November Meeting. In addition, Ball advised that the University is being considered to house the archives of the ATOS at the Bentley Historical Library.

Declining health has caused our longtime security guard Hank Tafoya to move to Chicago. His grandson Scott has taken his place for the remaining concerts here at the Senate Theater.
